TE MORRISH OUT, 14, 1804.

PROSPECTUS OF A new Story on an old Subject.

THE AUTHOR, in presenting the following work to the public can not but foel that he has an ardinous task to perform in estering to the public losse, and has somewhat digressed from the established rules, and customs of an thors by taking up a subject which, if carefully persued, and the advice herein contained followed, the ambition of the author will be gratified to its utmost extent, and the object of this work will have been attained, viz: to put money in my pocket and to give to the careful and inaulgent reader a literary treat through the agency of the digestive organs. It might perhaps be necessary to state, that the most of the manuscripts from which this tale was founded was taken from an old dress pocket found in a find hand Clothing Store a few weeks since in New York by the author, and originally owned by the indefatigable Mrs. Tooplas, at once conveying to the mind of the reader that a bargain may be expected. Hoping the kind and indulgent public will excuse any blunders and look with a putronising eye upon my humble efforts to procure for them let, 5 obesis of Imperial and Black Teas, the finest ever brought to this market, and put up in such a shape that every one can see it for themselves. Still keeping in view that philanthropic principle which actuated me to purchase of the importers a choice selection of Mocha, Old Gor. Java and Baltimore Rio Coffees. I must not digress so far from my subject as to forget that I also laid in a bountiful supply of Baker's Broma and French Chocolate, an excellent morning drink for my nervous reader in these troublous political times. In compiling the forthcoming work I shall "dilute" preity extensively on the merits of "Fe Fy." The following extract taken from the "Bung". letowr Fassett will convey some idea of the attention paid to that valuable insect:

"We take great pleasure in announcing that a celebrated author from one of the Western States is now in our city collecting apecimens for a forthcoming work, upon which be is engaged. We notice a large invoice the justly celebrated Tchernay Brandy, all of which the liberal author intends to treat his many readers, to or as many of them who have the magnamity to pay tor it. We wish the author success to his new work, which is to be

As the author feels incompetent to proceed in that Flour's style so common with writers of the present day, As the author feels incompetent to proceed in that Floury style so common with writers of the present day, he begs to say that in its proper place in the work he will serve up 800 bags of that indespensable article in 25, 50 and 100 lb. bags, thereby leaving it at the option of the readers to Flour to their own taste. For "fear" (and what author is without it) that this stupendous enterprise might end in "smoke" the author has carefully laid in a large and choice collection of "Segura," which will give each reader an opportunity of sustaining the author by giving him a "pug," and furthermore, in order to veryify the oldProverb of where there is so much smoke there must be some fire, the compiler of these valuable manuscripts has added a heavy stock of "Matches". As another digrension, for which I beg pardon of all authors who "spice" their concoctions with brilliant showers of wit and humor, I have employed a substitute, which I cannot but believe is of a more substantial nature, viz: a choice assortment of Nutmers, Garger, Chasamon, Caves, French, English and Kentucky Mustarda, Alkynice, Pepper, ground and unground, Cataups of different varieties, Worcestershire John Bull and Harvey Sauoss, and in the place of sweetening the many beautiful passages, which will occur from time to time with moballylitrays, saping breeze, and the nectar sipd from the pure type of annocence, I have employed the more powerful argument of Powelered, Crushed, Loof, Clarified and Granulated, and different degrees of Brown Sugara combined with the more liquid streams of Reboiled, Sugar House and Plantation Molasses, and the berght and towing Gelden Syrup. How beautiful, indulgent reader, does Pope or Gulliver (the author dees not distinctly remember) express himself in the following "Honey' Strains:"

How doth the little busy Bee

Honeg'd Strains

"Honey d Strains:"

How doth the little busy Bee
Improve each shining hour
And gather Honey—I here beg leave to say that in order more fully to carry out the objects of this same work, I have provided myself with a large stock of honey the author above speaks of, which will be used in its natural state or "strained" to suit the taste of the reader, as "straining" is a too common error among authors, which too very often places them in a position where they are compelled to make a "raine" I have in order, if possible to avoid that uspleasant predicament, taken the precaution to provide a large supply of Preston ta Merrill's Yeast Parairs, whose raising qualities my & Merrill's Yeast Powders, whose raising qualities my numerous readers have probably formed some opinion. As a bright and shining "light" as I intend this work to be, I shall substitute the agency of Star, Adamantine, Seem and Tullow Candles, and to "cleanss" the mind of all impurities shall resert to Castile, leis and Common Ba Soap, which together with Wash Boards, Tubs, Buckets Brooms, and Sorah Brushes, I have procured an abundant supply. As i is a time honored custsm with an abundant supply. As i is a time honored custem with compilets of great works to first "point the understanding" of heir readers, I take pleasure in stating that I shall for this urpose bring into requisition a full supply of "Elacking" and "Sice Brushes" and in order that the reader may more fully appreciate the sweet and choice selections above mentioned, I shall preface each chapter with a full description of different varieties of Pickles, Gross & Bischwell's Chow Chow and Piccelli, Garkin's prepared Horse Redict and pure Cider Unegar, for us a vice their once said every sweet his its sour, or something to that once said every sweet has its sour, or something to that effect. As this work will, undoubtedly, fall in the hands of a great many highly educated persons, who will look for the more dignified or "stiff" portions of the work. I shall introduce a heavy stock of Colgates & Foxes' Pearl. March, whose stiffening qualities none can say ought against, and another class of readers who are too easily gulled by a large class of "Meal'y" mouthed authors, and are never willing to acknowledge the "Corn," shall be sumply supplied with extracts from a large Bin of Corn Meal Rys Mad, or unboted Four. As the forthcoming work will be attended with snormous expense, owing to the sudden advance of Taxes (the cause of which has never been fally ascertained) the author is compelled to forego the publication until a certain amount of subscribers are obtained, (the amount of subscribers limited to 20,000, but obtained, (the amount of subscribers limited to 20,000, but specimens of the promised literary hash can be seen at his Studie, No. 50 Market street, every day, and full instruc-tions given to those who will purchase the ingredients and are desirous of embarking upon that "Tempest tosed ocean," an author's life.

I forgot to mention that all such old fogy authors as Loche and "Baron" will be ignored, and "c'ear Sides, Country and Sugar curof Hams, Shoulders, do, will be instituted. "I will also etste" that "that" Pony will still not in the capacity of assistant editor, the "shortness of his ears" not being sufficient to pronounce him incligable sept26—lm Yours Truly, D. G. Fever and Ague Remedy. THE cheapest and best cure for Ferer and Ague and all Fevers incident to the season.

HEAR WHAT THE DOCTORS SAY: We hereby ceretify that we have submitted the Graefenberg Fever and Ague Remedy to a close inspection and scientific analysis, and have also tested its curative quali-ties in several cases of intermittent fever. We take great pleasure in saying that it has proved completely success-iul, and that it is a most skillfully compounded remedy. It must exert a most beneficial influence in all cases; its tonic properties are immediate and highly salutary, and it is richly deserving the confidence of our brethren of the medical faculty and of the public.

FIRST PREMIUM SEWING MACHINES

Nashville Sewing Machine Company Nos. 71 1-2 EAST SIDE OF THE PUBLIC SQUARE,

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE. THESE Machines are now very justly considered to be the best in use, having the advantage of all others in the simplicity of their construction, the speed and beauty of their work, and the great strength of their seam. Unlike any others in use, they form a seam with two continuous threads from ordinary speeds of cotton, silk or linen—making a knot from ordinary speols of cotton, silk or linen—making a knot I every stitch which prevents the work from ripping under by circumstances whatever.

The first and highest premiums have been awarded to these Machines at all the feading Fairs throughout this country and Europe, and the inventor now rejoices in the more substantial reward of the largest patronage ever bestowed upon any Sewing Machine in Europe or America.

They are of the highest finish, and of every variety of size and style, and adapted to all the wants of the Sewing community. munity.

They are all secured exclusively to the proprietors by let-

They are all secured exclusively to the proprietors by letters patent, and are free from all legal controversy. Great pains has been taken to adapt these Machihes to Plantation sewing, and they are now so sumple, durable and easily run and tended by any person, that they are entirely beyond competition for this work or for the manufacture of heavy or light bags, for Corn or Wheat, no machinery has ever been invented to surpass them—any person after one hours practice can make from 400 to 700 corn sacks per day on one machine. These machines are also equally well adapted to the manufacture of all kinds of clothing, coarse or line, as well as general sewing, quitting, etitching, for. Thuse machines are so arranged as to make the stitch any length desired, and to sew with case any and every seam in any garment, and the durability, regularity and beauty of faish, cannot be equaled by any work accomplished by the most skillful nands.

We shall at all times keep on hand a ull assorturent of skillful nands.

We shall at all times keep on hand a ull assortment of these machines, and most respectfully invite the public generally to call and see them in use, and give them a caroful examination and be satisfied that the half has not yet been

MOUNT OLIVET CEMETERY, HE Directors of this Company new announce to the Public, that this Cemetery has been haid off with suitable avenues and walks, and a portion of the ground subdivided into Family Lots, which are offered for sale

The map of the grounds can be seen at the office of indsley & Crockett, where the public are invited to call and examine the same.

The Company feel confident they could not have made a more suitable location for a Cemetery in the vicinity of Nashville, and plodge themselves to the public to spare no Mastville, and ploogs demesters to the point to spare no money or pains to make it equal to say Cemestery in the Union, and such a one as Nashville may feel some price in.

The Cemetery is now in charge of a competent Superintendent, hiving on the ground, under whose direction interments will be made in the best manner and at the usual charges.

The Directors of the Company are desirous that the grounds should be visited by the citizens of Nashville, and for that purpose an Omnibus will leave the office of Linos ley & Grockett, at 4 o'clock, on Tuesday asternoon the shinst, and on every Friday afternoon the same hour The seats will be free.

Ladies and Families desirous of visiting the grounds, will be called for at their residences, by sending their cards to the President of the Company.
